CONDITIONS FOR REPRODUCTION PERMISSION

Permission to reproduce is dependent on full acceptance of the following conditions and is automatically abrogated if any part is infringed.

1. Permission to reproduce works in the collection of the Worcester Art Museum must be obtained from the Assistant Registrar, Rights and Permissions in writing prior to publication.
2. Reproductions must be made from photographic material supplied by the Worcester Art Museum. Color reproductions must be made for 4x5 inch color transparencies, which are available on a rental basis. All color transparencies remain the property of the Worcester Art Museum and must be returned promptly after use. Black and white reproductions must be made from 8x10 inch glossy photographs sold by the Worcester Art Museum.
3. Each image must be reproduced in its entirety without alteration, including cropping, bleeding off the page, overlapping, overprints, or change in color unless otherwise approved in advance by the Worcester Art Museum. Any altered or detailed image must be labeled as "detail."
4. Rights to reproduce are non-exclusive and are granted for one-time use only as detailed on the application form. Any further revisions, editions or printings require a new application.
5. Photographic materials and permission to reproduce may not be reissued, transferred, assigned, sold or otherwise disposed without written permission of the Worcester Art Museum.
6. If so requested, color proofs must be submitted to the Worcester Art Museum for approval prior to publication. The Worcester Art Museum reserves the right to deny reproduction if, after any correction, proofs are judged to be unsatisfactory.
7. The Worcester Art Museum can grant the permission requested only to the extent of its ownership of the rights relating to the request. Certain works of art as well as the photographs of those works of art may be protected by copyright, trademark, or related interests not owned by the Worcester Art Museum. The responsibility for ascertaining whether any such rights exist, and for obtaining all other necessary permissions, remains with the applicant. The Worcester Art Museum assumes no responsibility for any royalties or fees claimed by the artist or on the artist's behalf.
8. A complete copy of the publication in which the image is reproduced must be sent on the publishing date to the Worcester Art Museum, c/o the Assistant Registrar, Rights and Permissions.
9. The credit line, "Worcester Art Museum, Worcester, Massachusetts" followed by the individual credit line must appear in the caption or list of credits for each reproduction.
10. Reproduction permission fees are waived only if use is within the context of original scholarly research in a non-profit publication.
11. Application for permission to reproduce works of art in a non-editorial format must be accompanied by a layout sketch and/or samples of a similar project; a full description of the proposed use of the reproduction, including the context in which the reproduction will be used; retail and wholesale prices; and details of intended distribution. The museum reserves the right to refuse any proposal that conflicts with or does not meet the standards of its own product development. Compensation is determined on a case by case basis at the discretion of the museum. (Non-editorial use includes advertising or use in a promotional context, or as an integral part of commercial product such as posters, calendars, notecards, book jackets, record album covers, address books, photo albums, diaries, etc.)
12. Any unauthorized use by any person or entity, for any reason, will render applicant responsible and liable to the museum for appropriate compensation and other costs, regardless of whether applicant has profited or is responsible for such unauthorized use.

I have read the conditions for reproduction permission and accept them.
