EVENING ART INSTITUTES FOR ADULTS BEGIN JULY 6 AT WORCESTER ART MUSEUM

(WORCESTER, Mass., June 16, 2009) – Worcester Art Museum will host art institutes for adults in the evenings from Monday, July 6 through Thursday, July 30. An alternative to the Museum’s traditional, 10-week schedule, art institutes are intense, short-term art programs that are provide a “crash-course” on a particular subject.

“Our July programs are offered in the evening, which is perfect for adults looking to unwind after a busy day,” said Marcia Lagerwey, Associate Director of Education at Worcester Art Museum. “The program runs the gamut of traditional and non-traditional art topics, so there’s something for all interests.”

Course topics include book writing and self-publishing, graphic design, watercolor painting, stone carving, photography and drawing portraits from live models.

July institutes range from $22 to $160 for Museum members and $42 to $180 for nonmembers. To register online or to request a travel class brochure, go to worchesterart.org or call (508) 799-4406 ext. 3129.
