NEW PRINTMAKING EXHIBITION TRAVELS THROUGH TIME AT WORCESTER ART MUSEUM

(WORCESTER, Mass., June 26, 2009) — Worcester Art Museum launches the new exhibition, Printmaking Methods: Relief on Saturday, June 27. The fifth in a series of installations explaining the techniques of printmaking, this exhibition considers the relief processes, including woodcut, wood engraving and linocut. Printmaking will include relief prints from around world, dating from the 14th century to the present.

Printmaking includes color relief, wood engravings, carved wood and linoleum printing blocks and cutting tools from Europe, Japan and America. The exhibition will be accompanied by an illustrated, didactic pamphlet, distributed free to the public, and funded by a gift from Bernard and Louise Palitz.

Exhibition is on view Wednesday through Friday from 11:00 a.m. – 5:00pm, Saturday from 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. and Sunday 11:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. through October 18.

Located on Salisbury St., in Worcester, Massachusetts, the Worcester Art Museum opened in 1898 and is one of America's most respected art museums. The Museum is world-renowned for its 35,000-piece collection of paintings, sculpture, decorative arts, photography, prints, drawings and new media.
