

East Meets West Family Day

Sunday, November 8, 1-4:30pm

Ongoing Activities

WHEN	WHAT	WHERE
1-4:30	Family Gallery Activity Explore the galleries on a hunt to find animals found in the Chinese Zodiac. Return to Salisbury Hall and get a prize.	Pick-up and Drop-off In Salisbury Hall
1-4:30	Art Activity: Lanterns Create your own Japanese lanterns to bring home!	Studio 101 & Studio 203
1-4:30	Art Activity: Scrolls Learn about brush painting and create your own Chinese scroll!	Studio 102 & Studio 204
1-4:30	Jadeite and Nephrite and Ceramics, Oh My! Join WAM Docent David Snell in exploring the amazing treasures in the newly opened Chinese Decorative Arts Gallery.	Chinese Decorative Arts Gallery
1-4:30	Project Drop-Off Leave your artwork to dry on the Lancaster Lobby tables while you enjoy programs in Museum galleries.	Lancaster Lobby
1-4:30	Refreshments Relax and enjoy a variety of snacks and beverages	Museum Café
1-4:30	Chinese Games and Books Come learn ancient Chinese games, and read some art-inspired children's books.	The Discovery Gallery

Scheduled Activities

WHEN	WHAT	WHERE
1:30 & 3	Storytelling with Li Min Mo Join Storyteller Li Min Mo for a wonderful journey through China, featuring Chinese folk tales & song.	Prints, Drawings, and Photography Gallery First Floor
1:30-3:30	The Asian Longhorned Beetle A local example of when East met West in Worcester; we were introduced to the Asian Longhorned Beetle! Come meet an Asian Longhorned Beetle in person, and learn more about this important East to West "exchange." (Costumed interpreter courtesy Broadmeadow Brook Sanctuary, Worcester)	Lancaster Lobby
2:15	Chinese Music Join traditional hammer-dulcimer player, Ping Li as she performs some beautiful music with her students.	Renaissance Court