BREATHE IN A BIT OF SPRING DURING FLORA IN WINTER AT THE WORCESTER ART MUSEUM JANUARY 24-27

(WORCESTER, Mass., January 11, 2008) – The Worcester Art Museum comes alive for our 6th Annual Flora in Winter celebration. The Museum and Tower Hill Botanic Garden collaborate to host Flora in Winter, the premier floral design event of the year. Skilled artisans from across New England create clever, provocative interpretations at both venues. It is a succulent feast for the eyes and spirit in the middle of winter.

At the Worcester Art Museum, Homer's The Gale, Sheeler's Architectural Planes, Ryder's Pegasus, Benson's Natalie, as well as a myriad of other artworks from all over the world will be ingeniously interpreted with fresh, stunning and imaginative flower arrangements. At Tower Hill Botanic Garden, view dramatic, colorful floral arrangements interpreting the timeless, mysterious beauty of Chinese culture during a Passport to China.

Guided tours at each location will be offered several times daily. Special events celebrating Flora in Winter will be held at each institution.

Worcester Art Museum's presentation of Flora in Winter is generously sponsored by Unum and Flagship Bank and Trust. Additional generous support provided by the Worcester Telegram & Gazette and WICN Public Radio 90.5 FM, New England's Jazz and Folk Station.
